NEWS RELEASE

The Hardin County Board of Supervisors will be appointing one person to fill a vacancy on the County Conservation Board. That person will serve for the remainder of the term ending December 31, 2024.

The County Conservation Board is responsible for establishing policies, conservation programming, and maintaining conservation lands in Hardin County. They generally meet the second Monday of each month.

Interested persons are asked to complete the application for Appointment to Boards, Commissions and Committees available from the County Auditor or the Hardin County website at www.hardincountyia.gov. The application must be returned to the Auditor's Office by 4:30 p.m., June 15, 2021. Applicants may be interviewed.

For more information contact the Board of Supervisors at (641) 939-8219.

Hardin County recruits for gender-balanced Boards and Commissions.
