MAP 21: TIF & URBAN RENEWAL DISTRICTS HARDIN COUNTY, IOWA

* Iowa law allows municipalities [and counties] to establish urban renewal areas to finance public improvements such as streets, sewers, sidewalks, and other infrastructure related to residential, commercial, or industrial development; to redevelop slum or blighted areas; to fund private economic development; and to finance construction of low and moderate income housing. The primary source of funding for urban renewal projects in Iowa is tax increment financing (TIF). Tax increment financing is a method whereby a portion of the property taxes levied by all taxing authorities within a tax increment financing district (urban renewal area) are reallocated to the municipality or county that is undertaking the urban renewal project.

MAP 29: ELEVATION HARDIN COUNTY, IOWA

The background hillshade image is the hypothetical illumination of a surface by determining illumination values for each cell in a raster. It does this by setting a position for a hypothetical light source and calculating the illumination values of each cell in relation to neighboring cells. This hillshade was generated from the Iowa Bedrock Surface Elevation raster by the Iowa Department of Natural Resources. The hill shade was calculated using one meter resolution elevation data from the state of Iowa's LiDAR program.
